

THE NEWLY remodeled interior of the Camas Public Library now allows a more spacious atmosphere, increasing total square footage from the previous 6,800 square feet to the present 22,500 square feet. The front desk area, seen here with circulation assistants Daphne Raynor and Lynn Pierson, provides a buffer zone between an enlarged section for young people and the adult section.

—POST Photo